Lesson 1 — A Day with a Phone

Part 1 of 11: Passage — Sami's Morning

Level: A1+ (entry) → first step toward A2

About 20 minutes · this part carries a sheet and audio

> How to do the listening. The student listens before seeing the text, twice, then reads. Options: (1) you read the passage aloud slowly, about 90 words per minute, with a short pause at every full stop; (2) paste the passage into any free text-to-speech tool and set the speed to 0.8×. Rule for Lesson 1: no reading during the first two listenings.

1.1 Before listening (2 minutes, speak in Arabic if needed)

1. What is the first thing you do in the morning?
2. Do you use a phone or a computer every day?
3. What makes studying difficult in your area?

1.4 Now read the passage

🕮 Passage: Sami's Morning (185 words)

Sami lives in a small flat with his family. He is twenty years old. Every morning he wakes up at six o'clock. The first thing he does is look at his phone.

On his phone, Sami checks the weather and reads messages from his friends. Then he eats breakfast with his mother and his sister. They drink tea and eat bread, cheese and olives.

At seven o'clock, Sami goes to the computer centre near his house. He studies computers there. He learns how to use email, how to write documents, and how to keep his files safe. His teacher says, "A computer is only a tool. The important thing is the person who uses it."

Sami likes his class, but the internet is often slow. Sometimes the electricity stops and the computers turn off. Then the students talk and practise on paper until the power comes back.

In the evening, Sami helps his sister with her homework. Before he sleeps, he puts his phone on the table and charges it for the next day.

1.5 Read aloud

Read the passage aloud once. Record it on the phone. Keep the recording — we will compare it with Lesson 4.