Teacher Notes

Why this order. Listening before reading stops the student from "reading with the ears" — at A1 the habit of matching sound to text too early blocks real listening later. From Lesson 3 we can shorten the gap.

What Lesson 1 deliberately does NOT do. No grammar rules, no past tense, no abstract vocabulary, no long sentences. The passage uses only present simple and about 120 distinct words, most of them in the first 500 most-frequent English words.

Success criteria for Lesson 1. The student should be able to:

- answer the three listening questions correctly on the second hearing;
- read the passage aloud in under 2 minutes without stopping;
- use 8 of the 12 key words in their own sentence;
- write 6 correct simple sentences about their own morning.

If it is too easy: move to Lesson 2 with a 250-word passage, add past simple, and add a 2-question summary task. If it is too hard: split the passage into two halves across two weeks and cut the vocabulary list to 8 words.

Toward B2. The TOEFL question types in Part A (factual, negative factual, vocabulary in context, reference, inference) are the same five types the student will meet at B2 level. We keep the types constant for 8 months and raise only the text difficulty — so the exam format never becomes the obstacle.
